Spring Into Action at FlorAbundance!

The Arboretum Foundation's FlorAbundance, the region's largest plant sale, returns to Building 30 of the Warren G. Magnuson Park Special Events Center (7400 Sand Point Way NE, Seattle) on Saturday, April 25 (9 a.m. to 5 p.m.), and Sunday, April 26 (10 a.m. to 3 p.m.).

This is the 60th year that the Foundation has hosted a spring plant sale, and the event gets bigger and better each time. Dozens of top specialty nurseries and vendors will be on hand selling a wide selection of choice, locally-grown plants, from ornamental trees to tasty edibles.

What to look for this year:

- Lots of great new vegetable varieties and heirlooms for your kitchen-garden patch
- Teas trees, mint bush, phormiums, and salvias to replace those lost to harsh winter weather
- New hardy fuschias
- An expanded selection of native plants
- And much more

Plan the perfect "stay-cation" by creating a paradise of plants in your own backyard!

*Parking and admission are free; the sale benefits Washington Park Arboretum.
